Rosé Zweigelt 2020

Zweigelt (syn. Rotburger) is an interbreeding of Blaufränkisch and St. Laurent first achieved in 1921. The Zweigelt family had vineyards in Langenlois. Actually, Bründlmayer owns part of those vineyards. We make a varietal wine from Zweigelt but also use it for our Brut Rosé cuvée where it contributes deep fruit and sappiness.

Our Zweigelt Rosé derives from carefully hand-picked and gently whole cluster pressed grapes harvested in a state of middle ripeness. Only a small part comes from grapes for our Zweigelt Reserve, where we just use the must flowing out of the press before the pressing even starts. This logically leads to a light, pure, fresh & fruity rosé wine.

Tasting Note:

Beautiful light-weighted pink colour, intriguing aroma of fine red fruits (cherry, wild strawberries) accompanied by delicate floral hints (violets) and (youthful) yeasty notes. A refreshing front palate with lively acid elements, then a red-fruited mid-palate with a juicy profile, medium body, balanced, really much fun based, finely structured with a pleasant floral and slightly herbal finale.
